AMUN XXIV Code of Conduct

To ensure that AMUN maintains an atmosphere of safety and professionalism, we require that all participants agree to the points outlined in this document.

1. NJ State HIB Laws and regulations remain in full force and effect throughout the conference. Any student who violates these policies will be reported to your district's HIB coordinator.

2. The conduct of AMUN delegates reflects on both their home districts and the Bergen County Academies. Delegates must abide by all conference rules at all times. Failure to do so will have immediate consequences.

3. AMUN delegates must attend their committee in Business Attire and must respect the authority of their committee staff and the rights of fellow delegates. AMUN reserves the right to expel delegates who are dressed inappropriately, i.e. not fully dressed.

4. Supervision of the delegates will be the responsibility of their school chaperones, based on these rules and any further rules issued by the AMUN staff. Delegates will also respect the supervision of the Bergen County Academies faculty and staff.

5. Delegates must have a parent or legal guardian fill out the permission slip.

6. Delegates will be required to observe and follow all disciplinary and conduct policies of Bergen County Academies and their sending district.

7. Any kind of abusive or derogatory language including, but not limited to, language based on race, color, sex, sexual orientation, ethnicity, religion, age and/or disability will not be tolerated.

8. Delegates must present AMUN identification upon request.

9. Delegates are fully responsible for any damage done to the property of Bergen County Academies, or to other delegates.

10. Any violations may be subject to any of the following consequences:
    a. Verbal warning and probation for those delegates involved,
    b. Disqualification and the removal of individual(s) involved from the conference, c. Disqualification of the school involved in the conference.
